The Organization of the Strategies

These modules are from a collection of strategies. Although each strategy has been placed into a category, many can be adapted to fit one or more others. Browse through all sections when you are looking for a strategy for a particular use.

The Structure of each module

Each module may have 3 parts:
1. The instructions for the teachers, labeled OVERVIEW in the upper right-hand corner
2. The handout(s) for the students (if applicable), labeled HANDOUT
3. The applications page, with suggestions of how the strategy might be used

Details about the structure of the modules and the page numbering system can be found on a page near the beginning of the packet you received in Session 1.
